

Cornerstone OnDemand Terms of Use (Summary)

By using Cornerstone OnDemand's websites, software, applications, or services ("Service"), you agree to these Terms of Use and the Privacy Policy unless a separate written agreement applies. Cornerstone may update these terms at any time, and continued use signifies acceptance of the revised terms.

The Service allows users to access learning content, take courses and assessments, collaborate with others, join discussions, manage performance and goals, create or administer training, and buy or sell approved products or services. Unauthorized copying, resale, or misuse of the Service is prohibited.

Users must provide accurate registration information, maintain account security, update personal details, and are responsible for all activity under their accounts. Unauthorized account use must be reported immediately. Cornerstone may suspend or terminate accounts for false information or policy violations.

By providing an email address, users consent to receiving service-related notifications and optional promotional emails, with the ability to opt out of marketing communications.

All Service content is owned by Cornerstone, its licensors, users, or third parties and is protected by intellectual property laws. Users receive a limited, revocable license for personal use only. Copying, modifying, distributing, or commercially exploiting content without permission is prohibited. Third-party content is subject to its respective licensing terms.

For Digital Learning Events, Cornerstone may collect registration details, course progress, certifications, and assessment results. This information may be shared with employers, used in aggregated and anonymized reports, retained for up to five years, and used to improve future learning programs.

Cornerstone trademarks, logos, and branding may not be copied or used without written permission.
